Board Agrees to Appropriation For Employment of Extra Men.

The Board of Aldermen held a special measion in the City Hall last night to conelder the report from the Committee on recommending the appropriation of $500 for the employment of six extra men to assist in blowing out the gas service pipes. The resolution recommended by the committee was adopted.

The rules were suspended, and, the Board reconsidered its action in voting down the resolution to provide additional patrol boxes for the police department.

Frank England, Car Conductor, Bets on Horse Races on His Own System.

CWIN System.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 21.—
Frank England, thirty-seven years old, of Jersey (Liv.) N. J., nas won more than allowed the system upon an investment originally of seventy-rive cents. He was fix years ago a car conductor, and has been betting upon norse races for more than twenty years. On May Bity last at the Gravesend track, England began with seventy-five cents, and won on Last Cherry enough to make n.m the winner of $30 inat day. He has gone on since then, ever increasing he winnings, until he is now $150,000 anead. He has purchased a residence in Cumberland Street, Brookin, worth $30,000. He says he won $40,000 on Bedouin when that colt won the Aqueduct Handicap. It was this that caused some of the stewards to ask him how he came to back the colt "I had information that he had worked well, and with It4 pounds he figured to win," he replied.

England speaks intelligently about racplied. England speaks intelligently about rac-ling, but decares that he is only the crea-ture of good for one. He says that he contempiates retiring for the year, be-cause Irish Witch, the racer, he beto to do day at Bennings, was deliberately in-terferred with, he says, and prevented from winning.

"I never spoke to a jockey in my life," said England, "and don't want to I know that the Pinkerton men have been on my trail and they are welcome to all they find out. I get my information about work of horses in my own way." England is at the Raleigh Hotel with a large party of friends, including his wife and other relatives.

FITZ STARTS TRAINING FOR O'BRIEN FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO. November 21.—Bob Fitzsimmons, who is scheduled to meet Philadelphia Jack O'Brien here next month, to-day started active training for his bout. Fitz looks in perfect health and says he feels better to-day than he has feit for many months.

It was carly this morning when the former champion put on his heavy exothes, pulled a big sweater over his head, and with a broad smile of confidence on his face, started out on the road for his run.

face, started out on the road for his run.

Trotting by his side was Al Kaufman, the boy blacksmith, who fought a great battle with Jack C'Bren. Scarcely had the word that Fiz had started active raining reached the ears of the fight fans, when they began to flock from all directions to Bob's training place.

After an hour's absence the lanky fighter and his sparring partner returned. Fitz looked fresh and ready to go through some hard gym work. Bob put in about thry minutes at the punching bag and a few other exercises, and then entered the ring for a three-round sparring match. Those who saw Fitz in action to-day are convinced that there is nothing in the storles that he will not be able to stand the work mapped out for him to put himself into condition.

Virginia Preparing for the Contest With Carolina.

test With Carolina.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., November 21.—The William and Mary game, scheduled to be played at the Un orsity of Virginia on Saturday, has been called on account of typhoid fever prevalent at the Williamsburg Institution. This is disappointment to the Virginia management, as a light game is needed to prepare the team for the contest with Carolina on Thankegiving Day.

It is the general opinion, however, that the loss of the game will prove beneficial rather than otherwise, owing to the crippled condition of the men. Those who are crippled now with the exception of Captain Cooke and Maddux, will be in good shape by the end of tho week, and Coach Cole is especially desirous of topping off the hard training of the week by a practice game with one of the smaller colleges. Washington and Lee and Richmond College are being communicated with, and it is probable that one of them will accept the date. No certainty can be placed on the supposition, however, as it is rather late in the season to make such an addition to their schedules.

college dormitory. Since then four more cases have appeared, making five in all. A panie was caused among the students at first, and there was much talk of disbanding the college until after Christmas. Since then, however, the conditions of the patients has improved very much, and no new cases have broken out for several days. Every possible precaution has been taken.

The buildings have been thoroughly fumigated and the students boarding at the college dormitory are required to drink water that has been boiled. No further trouble is now apprehended.

Those who are sick are being tended by Drs. Hankins and Spencer, and four trained nurses are being employed to nurse them.

The foot-ball team met in the gymnasium late yesterday evening and dishanded. The William and Mary team, while not covering itself with much glory this year, has had to fight under hard luck from start to finish. In every game played, two or more players have been absent on account of sickness. Usually these have been the best players.

The team was scheduled to play the Virginia team November 29th, but has ennedled its engagement, as its captain is down with typhoid fever, and about half the team is still weak from recent illnesses.

Arrangements for the Army and Navy foot-ball game to be held at Princeton, N. J. on Saturday. December 2d, are progressing. Work on the new stand, which will seat 30,000 people, is being rapidly pushed. About 7,500 seats will be allotted to the Army and a like saumber to the Navy, and the remaining 15,000 will be assigned to the allmni and undergraduates of Princeton, to be sold at the uniform price of three dollars aplees. The net receipts will be turned over to the fund for orphans and widows of those who have served in the army and navy. Plans for the accommodation of guests are also being perfected. Army and navy officers will be entertained at the Princeton Im, and the midshipmen of the Naval Academy will be the guests of the university at luncheon in the new gymnasium. The gatire lower floor of University Hall will be turned over to a caterer and 2,500 people will receive lumb from this source. Cases argued; Fisher's Administrator vs. C. and O. Ry, Co. STOP HARVARD TANDEM

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW HAVEN, CONN., November 21.—
Harvard's tandem and how to break it up is the problem upon which Yale's coaches are at work, and will be at work until Wednesday evening, when the hard practice will coase for the game Saurday.

Some of Yale's coaches believe that they have a defense that will stop the "Empire State Express" on Soldiers' Field out they are keeping it a secret. They admit that to make their schome a success they will have to recast the back field and probably make a shift in the line at two places also.

Burch a husky freshman, who faced Teddy Roosevelt, Jr., last Saturday at end in the freshman game, may take Cates' place at left, and the Ale freshmen all praise Roosevelt, Jr.'s nerve and pluck. Hockenberger has more strength to-night in his call for left guard than Erwin, who did not stand up as well as was hoped in the Princeton game.

"How about Tad Jones?" asked scores of students to-night. They know the value of that brilliant quarter back in such a game as the Yale-Harvard contest. Trainer Mack says that he hopes Jones can start, but will make no definite promise.

Only the easiest of drill took place to day. The men went cet to Yale Field in blanket wraps and ran races up and down the gridiron in couples and in squads. It was more like school-boys almiess play than foot-ball practice. Wednesday is planned to be a hard day of practice.

Two incidents were told to-day by the Yale players, indicative of the good feeling between the Elis and the Tigers in the midst of their contest last Saturday. Just before Yale's second touchdown, Shoviln called out to Hutchisson: "Give Captain Cooney a chance to do some work." Cooney smiled, but thought the remark only banter. He woke up to find the Yale team storming him and going over him in ten seconds.

And when Waller took Dillon's place at guard, Waller saluted his old schoolmate of Lawrenceville Academy by saying: "Hello, Hutch; send oue through here." Hutchinson sung out: "23-12-7-
